

Countryside Community Group Sessions

Bespoke sessions can be arranged, contact us to discuss your requirements.

Sessions are run by Becky Russell, who is DBS cleared, first aid qualified, insured and is regularly supported by local volunteers at sessions.

Becky is a qualified Biologist, Forest School leader, Bushcraft practitioner, Environmental Educator and Youth group leader.

Across our wider team we have other specialists who can lead on; wild food and foraging, engineering history and creative crafts.

Costings

Under 2 hours: £50

For up to 25 people

2 - 3 hours: £75

additional charges for materials may apply

Contact us for further details.

We recommend early enquiries and booking to ensure you get the session you want, when you want it.
